THE LATEST THING IN RACES

A tank race, the first of its kind ever held, took place recently in Satory, near Versailles, France. The race was of the cross-country variety in which nine teams of three tanks each, took part. The course was marked out over country that severely tested the capability of the tanks as racers. Hills of fifty per cent. grade were negotiated by most of the contestants, and ditches of various widths failed to stop them.

EIGHT-YEAR-OLD CHESS WONDER

Not in years has the world witnessed a more remarkable case of abnormal child development than Stanislas Rzechewsky, born of Polish Jewish parents, and considered one of the foremost chess players in the world. Recently this eight-year-old player met the champion players of France at a special contest arranged by Princess Georges, of Greece, at the Hotel Majestic, Paris. He played twenty games in all, with these experts and won seventeen. He plays all his games simultaneously, and he moves from one board to the next, rapidly sizes up the situation, makes his move without hesitation and never reconsiders his play and leaves his adversaries struggling with their problems.

JACK DEMPSEY PUTS ON THE GLOVES

Contrary to reports that his rapid pace as a film actor had reduced his physical vigor, he is making a splendid showing in his first days of training in New York City.

JEWELLED BATON FOR MARSHAL FOCH

The jeweled baton, said to be the costliest ever made will be presented to Marshal Foch by James A. Flaherty, of Philadelphia, Supreme Knight, of the Knights of Columbus. The presentation will be made at the time the K. of C. statue of Lafayette is presented to France on August 21st. The baton is made of gold sapphires and lapis lazuli enamel with red copper bands—materials from seven states. The names of the states and the American possessions appear on stars on the barrel and the inscription bears the record of Foch's victories with the legend: "Terror Belli, Decus Pacis." The arms of France, the United States, Lorraine, and the K. C. are worked in gold at the head of the wand. It is twenty and a half inches long and weighs five pounds. The interior is hollow to contain a parchment testimonial.

LUSITANIA LIFE JACKET FOUND IN DELAWARE RIVER

A life jacket, silent remembrance of the tragic sinking of the Lusitania five years ago, and bearing a strand of faded blonde hair, has been picked up off Race Street wharf, in the Delaware River. The name of the ship the Germans torpedoed still remained clear and distinct on the wave-beaten canvass, which has been adrift on the seas throughout three years of war and two of peace.

BLOCK SHIPS PRESENTED TO BELGIUM

The four British battleships which were used with such good effect at Zeebrugge, have been presented to Belgium as a free gift. The vessels are The Vindictive, The Intrepid, The Iphigenia and The Thetis. Our photo shows The Intrepid with the steel girders on the bows which the Germans fitted in their attempt to raise this and the other ships.

CIVIL WAR IN STREETS OF LONDONDERRY, IRELAND

British troops who saw service in the World War, many of them wearing decorations, fighting revolutions behind a barricade in the street. The troops eventually cleared the buildings which were occupied by snipers, their war training enabling them to do this with a minimum of loss.

GETTING READY TO INVADE ENGLAND

Following the decision of the United States Polo Association that a team will be sent from this country next June in an effort to bring back the International Cup from England, American players have taken a renewed interest in the sport. Tryouts to determine which candidates are suitable for the American Team are being held at the Meadowbrook Club, Westbury, L. I.
